

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

Christie Angel

Christie Angel was appointed to serve as Mayor Michel B. Coleman’s Deputy Chief of Staff and Director of External Affairs & Services in January 2012. In this role, Ms. Angel leads the city’s community outreach office as well as engagement with external partners and officials from the county, state and federal government. Ms. Angel brings an extensive knowledge and experience in local government, government relations, and community affairs to city government.

Previously, Ms. Angel served as a Vice President with the government relations firm, Sean P. Dunn & Associates. She was responsible for all aspects of client representation working with corporate, government, and non-profit businesses to advance their government and community relations goals.

Ms. Angel has held positions in both the public and private sector, including Director of External and Government Affairs for AT&T, Deputy Chief of Staff and Director of Operations for Mayor Coleman, and legislative aide to Coleman when he served on Columbus City Council.

An active community volunteer, Ms. Angel currently serves on the boards of The Greater Columbus Arts Council and the River South Authority. She is also a member of the Columbus Chapter of The Links, Incorporated. Ms. Angel previously served on the boards of the YWCA, United Way, and Leadership Columbus. She is a Leadership Columbus graduate.

Ms. Angel is the recipient of the Ohio Legislative Black Caucus Corporate Roundtable Award for leadership, the St. Francis DeSales High School Forest “Treeze” Sharrock Alumni Award for community service, and was installed in the Leadership Columbus Hall of Fame in 2013. She received her Bachelor of Science in Communications and MBA from Franklin University in Columbus, Ohio. She and her husband Otto Beatty, III reside in German Village.
